ROYALTY TURNED BACK

Foul Weather Delays Flight

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP)—Looking sleepily drawn, Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip were turned back for an unexpected overnight stop in Vancouver Thursday night after 20 hours in the air and only 3 hours sleep on their flight to the South Pacific.

A Vancouver hotel hastily swept out a suite that had been used for a business conference and decked it with flowers and special furnishings for the royal couple. Mothers whisked children from their beds, bundled them in sweaters and took them out for a glimpse of their sovereign.

Foul weather forced the royal plane to turn back twice on its flight to Fiji for the start of the royal couple's two-month tour of some 6,500 miles.

The royal plane landed here Thursday night after a flight of 5,000 miles from Honolulu. The royal couple will visit Fiji islands, Australia and New Zealand.

Trans Airways Corp. predicted 10:30 a.m. Pacific Standard Time (1:30 p.m. Eastern Standard Time) departure today but said weather could delay the flight further.

The delay disappointed thousands of Fiji islanders gathered at the Port of Lautoka. But no one thought of going home.

"We will wait many days to see our queen," said Chief Saimoni Valu. "My people will sleep on the sharp and at the roadside all night."
